May Agility Trial

Our May Agility Trial will be held May 28, 29 & 30 (Memorial weekend) at the Amarillo National Center. This is the first time for this location and we are very excited about this fabulous facility and the chance to run 2 rings. This also means we will need twice as many volunteers as we have had in past trials.

Mail your entries to Carol Brand, our Trial Secretary—trial is filling fast.

To volunteer for Ring Steward, please contact Carol Bishop at email: carolturbojet@gmail.com (no experience necessary)

To help clean and load agility equipment, be at the agility field on Sunday, May 22 at 3:00 pm. Bring rags, scrubbers and buckets.

The jump building party is tentatively scheduled for Sunday, May 1 at the AOTC club building. A firm date and time along with more information will be posted to the AOTC Yahoo website and sent out to all members by email from Jeri.

If you have any questions regarding the agility trial, please contact our Trial Chairman, Terry Hetzel at terry8410@suddenlink.net

THANKS in advance for your support.

A Day in the Life of ...

Hi. My name is Cruise Kelley. I do all the stuff us performance dogs do, you know like agility, obedience, rally, herding. But last weekend I got to do something extra special. My friend Meisha and her person Judy Flagle told me about the Autism Awareness Walk, so I took my person Lisa and we had a blast. I met up with some of my friends Meisha, Sophie (her person Carolyn Archer), Hoss and Cinders (their person Lee Ann McNeil), Truxton and Jaxson (their person Andrea Wright and of course Jake).

I ran in an agility demo and hung out at the Autism Awareness Walk. There was a bunch of people and I was fantastic. I ran outside in a park which I have never done and did great, only went out of the flags marking the ring when I smelled a hot dog. I'm not a touchy feely dog. Love to cuddle when there is nothing else to do. At the walk, I let everyone pet me and had the kids all over me. I never jumped up to bonk a face either. I did stand on my back legs very easy to touch a girl's cheek who had a heart painted on her cheek. I thought she missed some food. (:

I wore my Autism shirt most of the 4 hours I was there and it never bothered me, even ran agility with it on. I did a bunch of tricks for everyone anddrum roll..... I did a dark green tunnel the first time and every time after that. WHOO HOO! For some of you who don't know, I have refused tunnels since August and it has been a real ordeal to get me back to this stage (at least that's what my person says).

By the end of the day, the kids were walking by telling their friends "There's Cruise - we love him" and bringing people to see me and pet me. I think I made a few fans.

The kids were the best I have ever seen. They all asked and were very dog knowledgeable. I'm sure that is from all of Judy's great teaching with Meisha. They were so good and the white poodle loved the kids so much and ran agility like a champ.

Sophie was a Rock Star, it thrilled me to see her come from a shy dog who did not like people around her, to letting kids and everyone pet her. And I have to say that I always love spending time with Jake. He is such a great kid and he is so funny. Andrea and Truxton were fabulous and made agility look easy. I loved meeting her older dog, Jaxson and with limited sight just loved all the hands petting him. And then there is Hoss, the most steady sheltie ever, did his tricks, ran agility and let the kids all over him. He was just his fabulous self.

I can't wait until next year. Enjoy the photos my personal photographer took !

p.s. I am writing a book about my adventures "Cruising Around America!" It should be available on Amazon.com next year.
